Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights District and School Grade Report

Submission for BOE Approval

Self Assessment Grades must be submitted to the State for approval by September 30, 2015

State will review/approve Self Assessment Grades submitted by the District. Official grades usually released in December.

About the District and School Grade Reports

- Under the NJ Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, the state requires posting of “anti-bullying grade” on district and school websites
- Each school’s grade is a raw score from 0 to 78. It is based on a 20-page self assessment that each school completed to measure how well it met the requirements of the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights.
- Schools were provided a rubric to rate their performance in 8 categories, including programs to prevent harassment, intimidation and bullying; staff training; student curriculum and instruction; proper staffing; and reporting and investigation procedures.

Core Elements of the Self-Assessments

- HIB Programs, Approaches or Other Initiatives
- Training on the BOE-approved HIB Policy
- Other Staff Instruction & Training Programs
- Curriculum & Instruction on HIB & Related Information & Skills
- HIB Personnel
- School-Level HIB Incident Reporting Procedure
- HIB Investigation Procedure
- HIB Reporting
