WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW!

RESPECT

- RESPECT is earned and not something that you are entitled to.
- We will treat you like an adult as long as you act like one!
- This power point is to serve as a warning. It will inform you of the EXPECTATIONS WE HAVE FOR YOU!

Social Probation: 5th Grade

In an effort to maintain a high level of control and cooperation from our students, we have initiated a disciplinary program of Social Probation. It is a four-part program of exclusion. Students on social probation will be subject to the following:

HOW DO I LOSE PRIVILEGES?

By getting into trouble in the classroom, during a special or in the lunchroom or on the playground.

Break rules include:

- Horseplay (ex. running in the halls)
- Cell Phones/ Electronic Devices
- Electronic misconduct
- Push/ Shove/ kick
- Name calling/ teasing
- Bullying
- Bus misbehavior
- Dress Code Violation
- Disruptive Behavior
- Inappropriate Behavior

TYPES OF DISCIPLINE
