Let the Adventures Begin!

CRES Flight A113 is currently boarding and almost ready for departure. Please hand your boarding passes to the ticket attendant at the gate, when you enter the cabin. I haven't met you and already think the world of you. "Oh, the Places You'll Go This School Year!"

Welcome Travelers to our First Class Fourth Grade! Captain Gonzalez is looking forward to piloting our aircraft as we navigate our way through books, travel back in history, go on a road trip with multiplication and division, cruise on the high seas with writing, and explore Science projects and experiments.

Hopefully, you are ready to sightsee while reading through this letter to find and list ten travel-related words or phrases. Please bring this list and possibly a postcard of a place you have traveled to as a carry-on to your final destination. So, slip on some comfy travel clothes, grab your camera and passport, and come fly with us over to the Crawford-Rodriguez Airport Terminal.

When you arrive at the gate, wave to all of the other tourists and tour guides. Below is a list of suggested supplies for your suitcase. Please show it to the pilot who helps take you on a trip for supplies. Remember that: "Learning is a Journey that Never Ends."
