Welcome Aboard CRES Airlines where your adventure in learning is about to take off!!

CRES Flight A113 is currently boarding and almost ready for departure. Please hand your boarding passes to the ticket attendant at the gate, when you enter the cabin. Our flight is bound for an unforgettable journey through the 2025-2026 school year. I haven't met you and already think the world of you. "Oh, the Places You'll Go This School Year!"

Welcome Travelers to our First Class Fourth Grade! Captain Gonzalez is looking forward to piloting our aircraft as we navigate our way through books, travel back in history, go on a road trip with math as we explore multiplication, division and fractions, cruise on the high seas with writing, and chart a course through science projects and experiments.

Hopefully, you are ready to sightsee while reading through this letter to find and list ten travel-related words or phrases. Please bring this list as a carry-on to your final destination (the first day of school). The engines are running and the roadway is clear. So, buckle up travelers, slip on some comfy travel clothes, grab your camera and passport, and come fly with us over to the Crawford-Rodriguez Airport Terminal.

When you arrive at the gate, wave to all of the other tourists and tour guides. Below is a list of suggested supplies for your suitcase. Please show it to the pilot who helps take you on a trip for supplies. Remember that: "Learning is a Journey that Never Ends."
