

I WRITE STORIES,

CARTOONS,

AND YOU CAN TOO!

Hi. I'm children's author and illustrator Daniel Jude Miller, and I am super-excited to have the opportunity to virtually meet all of you.
We are going to talk about where ideas come from, how to write a great story, how to create really cool drawings, and so much more. And the best part is that when we're done, you will all know exactly how to finish your very own awesome book!
