Presentation

Life After School

Employment is the key to fulfilling so many of our dreams. As an Employment First state, the NJ Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD) is working to ensure that competitive employment in the general workforce is the first and preferred post education outcome for all people with disabilities. This presentation explains the value of working in an integrated, competitive setting & provides information about ways to access DDD-funded employment services/supports.

Jennifer Joyce: Dir. of Support Program & Employment Services;
Div. of Developmental Disabilities

Joseph Guarracino: Rehab Counselor 2; NJ Division of Vocational Services

Values into Action, NJ: Support Coordination Agency Values into Action is leading the way for the next generation of services, in partnership with people, their families, and communities.

ARC of Ocean: Development Director Lauren Gandulla will present information on services offered by The Arc of Ocean (i.e. Vocational, Residential, Family Support, Transition).
