

Preschool FAMILY NIGHT!

Exploring Creative Curriculum through the Pet Study!

Wednesday
December 3, 2025
From 5:30-7pm
Location: Elms Elementary School
780 Patterson Rd, Jackson
Township, NJ 08527

An Interactive, Fun night for the Family, as you explore Creative Curriculum through Centers !

- We will explore The Pet Study (which is a unit of study in the Creative Curriculum).
- Join us for a fun and interactive night, as together you will navigate through the different centers of a Preschool classroom, all while learning about Pets!

RSVP by November 21st!

Scan me!

First 50 to RSVP will be able to “adopt” a small stuffed animal at our event!

“Help us care for our furry friends! We’re collecting pet supply donations such as food, treats, toys, and blankets to Jackson’s Women of Today Food Pantry!
Every item makes a difference!”

Creative Curriculum

- Framework that embeds 36 learning objectives into unit of studies through center based exploration of learning.
- Based on developmentally appropriate studies that students explore with teacher guidance for several weeks.
 - Units of study will be communicated with families to encourage family involvement.
- Social and Emotional Learning will be highlighted daily through Creative Curriculum, Pyramid Model and various resources
- Areas of focus will be: Friendship Skills, Emotional Literacy & Competencies as well as Problem Solving Skills

Ocean
County
Library

Questions? Call- 732-833-4677

girl scouts of the jersey

